UNIVERSITY SAYS BOYDPresident of Local School Finds
Favor for Home Education
When People Are Told About It.

"It is surprising how little people in the more remote parts of the state know about the University of New Mexico," said President David R. Boyd, who has just returned from an educational trip to Washington, Astoria, Spokane, and Santa Fe where he has been doing good missionary work for the local school at teachers' meetings and elsewhere.

"I find the young men and women most sincerely disposed toward education. Their higher education at home makes the advancement of the home and society all the better for them," Dr. Boyd. "The fact that they can come here more easily than they can go out of the state and get as much for the money makes a strong appeal and I look for students west fall from all the places I have visited. The registration was 22 last year and I expect a big increase when the fall semester opens."

Dr. Boyd is soon to leave on another trip, either to the Pecos Valley or to Denver, El Paso, Carrizo, Abiquiu and Tucson.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church will give their monthly coffee luncheon from 2 to 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Henry Mann, 723 North Fourteenth street.

SCIENCE AND SHOP
BUILDINGS FOR INDIAN SCHOOL

Twenty Thousand Dollars Are Available for Buildings and Improvements to be Expended for New Departments.

A domestic science hall and a shop building will be erected at the United States Indian school in Albuquerque during the next fiscal year with $20,000 available for buildings and improvements, the money being included in the appropriation for the maintenance of the local institution for the period of twelve months. Superintendent Roschen Ferry has planned carefully to make the $20,000 care adequately for the construction of the two new buildings. Superintendent Ferry is also making the necessary arrangements to increase the capacity of the school for the fiscal year to 450 pupils, the extra expenses for the increase also being provided for in the appropriation bill.

Of much interest is the annual report which Superintendent Ferry recently forwarded to Washington. The item of chief importance is the one showing that the local Indian school is quite an extent a self supporting institution. Approximately $16,000 was saved to the government during the last fiscal year by the consumption of farm products and the use of manufactured articles, the work of the students. The figures show a splendid average attendance for the year and give an intelligent and carefully compiled statement regarding the tribes represented.

In brief abstract the report follows:

GAS COMPANY CASE
HEARD AT SALT LAKE

Nashville, July 15.—Judge John Marshall in the United States district court of Utah today began the hearing of the Kansas Natural Gas company case on the order of the Kansas Utilities commissioner, directing the state and federal referees to extend the pipe lines into Oklahoma to secure more gas.

The case came to Judge Marshall's court when Judge Pollock of the Kansas district court required that the case be transferred from his court. Arguments were made this afternoon following a prolonged morning's session at which General Manager A. J. McBeth testified the extension could not be made and more gas supplied at the present rates.

PAUL GRATES CASE TO SUPREME COURT

An additional chapter in the fight for possession of the estate of the late Eliza G. Grates was written today when Judge M. C. Mecham, sitting for Judge Reynolds, granted an appeal to the supreme court in the case of Paul Grates, a minor, by his next friend and guardian, Barbara Agnes Brown, versus Petra Garcia. Some months ago a jury in the district court returned a verdict favorable to the defendant. It is alleged that Eliza G. Grates was the father of Grates.

Washington, July 15.—Democrats of the senate finance committee met today and approved the majority report prepared by Chairman Simmons on the tariff bill.

Helen Dickerson, a negro, was committed to the county jail today by Justice Garcia of Durango, to await the return of Judge Reynolds for an examination as to sanity. The Dickerson woman has on several occasions demonstrated her unsoundness of mind, but some weeks ago was declared sane when arraigned in the district court.
